“Will <basketball team> win <year> NBA Conference Championship?” Event Contract

Scope - These terms govern the trading of the Basketball Outcome Event Contract (the “Contract”), a type of “Event Contract” listed by the Exchange.

Underlying - The Underlying for this Contract is the official final result of whether <basketball team> wins <year> NBA Conference Championship. Revisions to the Underlying made after Expiration will not be accounted for in determining the Expiration Value.

Source Agency - The Source Agencies are, in hierarchical order, NBA.com and the official statistics published on its public website,, ESPN, CBS Sports, Fox Sports, NBC Sports, the Associated Press, Reuters and the official broadcaster of <year> NBA Conference Championship.¹

Type - The Type of Contract is a swap.

Issuance - The Contract is based on the outcome of a recurrent sporting event. Accordingly, Contract iterations will be issued on a recurring basis, and future Contract iterations will generally correspond to subsequent scheduled <year> NBA Conference Championship or similar games within the same league or season as specified by the Exchange.

<basketball team> - Refers to a basketball team or entity participating in a <year> NBA Conference Championship, as specified by the Exchange. <basketball team> may refer to a singular team, multiple teams using AND/OR logic, a team within a set of teams, or teams defined by distinguishing characteristics (e.g., “any Eastern Conference team,” “the home team,” “teams with winning records,” “any Big Ten team”). <basketball team> may also take the values “Any” or “None.” The Exchange may list iterations of the Contract corresponding to variations of <basketball team>. If a team name changes, relocates, or undergoes organizational restructuring while maintaining substantial continuity, <basketball team> shall track the successor entity. This will be announced by the Exchange in the event it is relevant.

<year> - Refers to a specific, identified basketball season year (e.g., “2026-2027”, “2028”).

Trading and Settlement - During the Event Contract trading hours, Participants are able to adjust their positions and trade freely. After trading of the Event Contract has closed, Rothera will determine the Expiration Value and whether the Payment Criterion encompasses the Expiration Value (i.e. whether the outcome is “Yes” or “No”). The market is then settled by Rothera, and either the long position holders or the short position holders are paid the Settlement Value. In this case, “long position holders” refers to Participants who purchased the “Yes” side of the Event Contract and “short position holders” refers to Participants who purchased the “No” side of the Event Contract. If the Expiration Value is “Yes”, then the long position holders are paid the Settlement Value multiplied by the number of Contracts held by such Participant and the short position holders receive no payment. If the Expiration Value is “No,” then the short position holders are paid the Settlement Value multiplied by the number of Contracts held by such Participant and the long position holders receive no payment. Specification of the circumstances that would trigger an Expiration Value of “Yes” is included below in the section titled “Payment Criterion”. The Expiration Date of the Contract is designed to account for multiple possible contingencies regarding the timing of the determination of the event. Any subsequent revisions to the initial release of the final result of <year> NBA Conference Championship by the league or association will NOT affect or alter the settlement value of the Contract once the Expiration Value is determined by the Exchange.

Payment Criterion - The Payment Criterion for the Contract encompasses the Expiration Value where <basketball team> is the winner of <year> NBA Conference Championship. In order to be considered the “winner” of <year> NBA Conference Championship, <basketball team> must have won more games (a strictly greater number) in the NBA Conference Championship series than their opponent. (four games within a seven game series under the governing league’s rules), or the Source Agency declares <basketball team> the “winner.” The market resolves based on the first final result reported by the highest-ranked Source Agency in the hierarchy set forth above - a lower-ranked Source Agency’s report shall govern only if no higher-ranked Source Agency has published a final result, unless the Exchange, in its sole discretion, determines such result to be clearly erroneous and elects to defer to a corrected final result issued prior to Expiration.

Additional Clarifications:

- If the <year> NBA Conference Championship is (i) abandoned, cancelled, or (ii) not scheduled or not rescheduled to take place before the Expiration Time, the Contract will resolve based on the last fair market price as determined by the Exchange pursuant to Rothera DCM Rule 7.2. Long position holders will receive the number of Contracts held multiplied by the fair market price, and short position holders will receive the number of Contracts held multiplied by $1 minus the fair market price.
- If the <year> NBA Conference Championship is suspended during play and is officially scheduled to resume from the point of suspension (i.e., from the game clock, score, and court position at which play was halted) before the Expiration Time, the Contract shall remain open and shall settle based on the final result of the the <year> NBA Conference Championship as so resumed. If the <year> NBA Conference Championship does not resume from the point of suspension before the Expiration Time and no final result has been declared, the Contract shall resolve based on the last fair market price as determined by the Exchange pursuant to Rothera DCM Rule 7.2. Long position holders will receive the number of Contracts held multiplied by the fair market price, and short position holders will receive the number of Contracts held multiplied by $1 minus the fair market price.

- If the <year> NBA Conference Championship is shortened, called, or otherwise ended before the completion of regulation time (e.g., due to unsafe conditions, or curfew), and the Source Agency declares the series final and records a winner, the market will resolve based on that final result.
- If <basketball team> forfeit the <year> NBA Conference Championship before the game clock starts, the market for the forfeiting <basketball team> will resolve to “No”, and the opposing team’s market will resolve to “Yes”.
- If <basketball team> are disqualified, deemed ineligible, or have the result of the <year> NBA Conference Championship vacated after the series has started but before the Contract expires, the market will resolve to “No” for the disqualified <basketball team>. If such disqualification causes the opposing team to be declared the winner, the market for that team will resolve to “Yes.”
- If the <year> NBA Conference Championship is delayed but is rescheduled, the market will remain open with settlement occurring no later than two (2) days after the rescheduled conclusion of the NBA Conference Championship series. Additionally, a change of venue does not affect resolution so long as a final result indicating a winner of the <year> NBA Conference Championship is recorded by the Source Agency.
- If the official series result is delayed or unavailable, the Exchange may wait up to 24 hours after the Expiration Time for the result to become available, after which it may resolve the Contract in its sole discretion.
- If a Source Agency publishes a result that it subsequently retracts, corrects, or confirms was the result of a compromised, hacked, or erroneous source, the Exchange will rely on the final corrected result published by the Source Agency prior to the Expiration Time.

- Where <basketball team> is defined using AND logic, the Contract shall resolve to "Yes" only if all specified teams are the winners of their respective <year> NBA Conference Championship. Where <basketball team> is defined using OR logic (requiring any one team in a defined set to win), the Contract shall resolve to "Yes" if any one team in the specified set is the winner of its <year> NBA Conference Championship. The Exchange shall specify the applicable logic and the constituent teams at the time of listing.
- All times are determined in Central Time (CT), which refers to Central Daylight Time (CDT, UTC-5) when daylight saving time is in effect, and Central Standard Time (CST, UTC-6) otherwise, in each case as observed in Chicago, Illinois on the applicable date. Reporting concerning <year> NBA Conference Championship is considered through the Expiration Time on the Expiration Date and no later.

Minimum Tick – The Minimum Tick for the Event Contract shall be $0.01.

Position Accountability Level – The Position Accountability Level for the Event Contract is 5,000,000 Contracts for Participants. The Position Accountability Level for Market Makers is 25,000,000 Contracts, or as updated on the Exchange's website.

Last Trading Date – The Last Trading Date of the Contract is the date on which <year> NBA Conference Championship is completed or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Payment Criterion.

Settlement Date – The Settlement Date is the date on which money is paid to the account of a Participant in whose favor the contract settled pursuant to an Event Contract held until Expiration, and on which money is paid from the account of a Participant who is obligated to pay money pursuant to an Event Contract held until Expiration. The Settlement Date of the Contract shall be no later than the day after the Expiration Date.

Expiration Date – The latest Expiration Date of the Contract shall be two (2) days after the originally scheduled date of <year> NBA Conference Championship. If an event described in the Payment Criterion occurs, expiration will be moved to an earlier date and time as determined by the Exchange.

Expiration Time – The Expiration Time of the Event Contract shall be 10:00 AM CT on the Expiration Date.

Settlement Value – The Settlement Value is the amount paid to the holder of the in-the-money Event Contract on the Settlement Date. The Settlement Value of an in-the-money Event Contract is $1.

Expiration Value – The Expiration Value is the value of the Underlying as documented by the Source Agency on the Expiration Date at the Expiration Time.

Contingencies – If the Source Agency does not actually announce a result consistent with the settlement methodology or the Payment Criterion on or before the Expiration Time due to a delay, postponement, cancellation or otherwise in such release announcement by the Source Agency, the Settlement Date, Expiration Date and Expiration Time will be extended as set forth in the Additional Clarifications section herein. In the event no result is confirmed within the extended period specified therein, the Contract shall resolve pursuant to DCM Rule 7.2. Consistent with Exchange Rule 7.2, Rothera reserves the right to make settlement determinations.

Trading Prohibitions – In addition to the prohibition against the misappropriation of material nonpublic information under CFTC Regulation 180.1, the Exchange's prohibited trading activities set forth in Chapter 7 of the DCM Rulebook, certain additional individuals are prohibited from trading the Event Contract. Those persons include:

- Any player, coach, assistant coach, coordinator, general manager, team executive, trainer, physical therapist, medical representative, equipment staff, or other on-court or team personnel of any team participating in the referenced <year> NBA Conference Championship, including practice squad players, injured reserve players, and any individual credentialed by the applicable league, conference or association for the referenced game.
